

CAROLINE FURNACE

Lutheran Camp & Retreat Center

OUTDOOR EDUCATION

For over 40 years, we have been planning customized trips for school groups of all sizes and ages. Our wide variety of lodging, meeting facilities, outdoor spaces and activities allows us to adapt to meet the needs of each group.

Adventure
Growth
Experiential Learning
Curricular Connections
Teambuilding

Inquiry
New Experiences
Social Responsibility
Time Outdoors
Curiosity

At Caroline Furnace:

- Explore a Civil War era Iron Furnace
- Watch the twinkle of stars in the night sky
- Work together on Community Development Course
- Investigate Earth's cycles, systems, and patterns
- Build community by a campfire
- Study stream ecology
- Canoe on the lake
- Observe biodiversity
- Go for a hike
- Learn archery

Local Opportunities:

Canoeing - Kayaking - Horseback Riding - Ziplining
Caving - Rock Climbing - Battlefields - Cavern Tours

Learn more at www.CarolineFurnace.org/outdoor-education

257
acres of forest and fields

5+
miles of trails on property

200,000
acres of public land nearby

<100
miles from Washington DC

1835 - 1865
Civil War era Iron Furnace

1865 - 1957
Working Farm

1957-present
Lutheran Summer Camp
and Retreat Center

2239 Camp Roosevelt Road Fort Valley VA 22652
(540) 449-0012